Treasurer's Report

- Income from ice cream social - $456 with a profit of $290
- Need to add parent donations to luncheon income
- Deidre made a motion to approve the minutes, 2nd by JoEllen, unanimous approval

Old Business:

- Ice Cream Social – Very successful
 - More organization, direct traffic better
 - Offer fewer topping choices, make 2 ice cream lines
- Teacher luncheon was well received
- Directory
 - Has been sent out
 - Online form was great, ideas to expand?
- Entertainment Books
 - Sold 219 via order forms and 36 online
 - Over $3000 in profit and counting
 - Student prizes have been ordered

New Business:

- Family reading night – 10/25
 - Budget of $60 to provide milk and graham crackers
 - Deidre made a motion to approve, 2nd by Diana, unanimous approval
- Square One Art
 - On schedule
- Other Fundraising ideas
 - Art Reach – Mom's night out
 - Paint on canvas or wine glasses
 - Looking at May, weekend of Mother's Day
 - Dairy Queen fundraising night upcoming
 - Wong or Yang's – possible fundraising options?
 - Stacy Lacey contacted Fretzels
 - They will do an all day event, with a portion of proceeds donated, will table for Spring

- Stacy also secured some ice skating tickets for Gardner Ice Arena, will raffle off at the Fall Festival/Pumpkin Contest
- Bayberry bowling
 - Can sell tickets ahead of time for a profit, too much hassle/confusion
 - On a ½ day in the winter, just have a Naquag fun day and sell snacks as the fundraising portion

Open Session

- Dottie Rosoff will contact Teamworks and Dunkins to see what fundraising options they have available
- Justine Pulaski will contact Clay Time and Mexicali to see what they offer

Adjourn:

- Deidre made a motion to adjourn the meeting, JoEllen seconded it, and it passed unanimously
